Summary

Stefan Schiman-Vukan is a Senior Economist at WIFO. Since 2012 he has been working in the research group Macroeconomics and Public Finance, mainly in the area of business cycle analysis and forecasting. Since 2015 he is also a lecturer at the University of Applied Sciences of BFI Vienna. His academic research focuses on the application and further development of structural VAR models of monetary policy and labor market topics, on which he has published in renowned academic journals such as the American Economic Journal: Macroeconomics, Review of Economic Dynamics, and Macroeconomic Dynamics. Another area of expertise is the modeling of long-term public finance scenarios. Prior to his doctoral studies at WU Vienna, Stefan Schiman-Vukan studied at the universities of Maastricht and Graz. Stefan lives in Vienna with his wife and daughter.
